

Upcoming Events

Escaping Lease Commitments
Virtual Seminar	25 February 2021	1.5 Hours CPD

The financial difficulties that businesses are experiencing as a result of Covid-19 have one upside for occupiers, in the form of the opportunity to put pressure on landlords as to lease terms. This webinar will examine the extent to which landlords can control the issue, and possible routes to a solution via insolvency mechanisms.

Rating: Law and Practice: Applying Case Law to Practice - 2 Virtual Sessions
Virtual Seminar	5 March 2021	5 Hours CPD

Best rating practice cannot be achieved without understanding case law. This event is far more than a case law review. A panel of leading lawyers and practitioners will review important and topical cases and explore the nuances of what is best and effective practice in the light of these decisions. This event takes place in the shadow of COVID 19. With venues remaining closed and working from home still the norm, we have reviewed the programme and the event will now presented as two, approximately two hour virtual sessions.

Rating - Talking Heads - March
Virtual Seminar	17 March 2021	1 Hour CPD

Rating Green Energy And Power Generation. Lets go leftfield: How do we value emerging technology and infrastructure? Most of us know how to rate an office, retail park, even a library (ignoring the nuances of some cases), but where do we start with power generation? A small panel of leading and informed practitioners, will discuss this topical, or contentious issues over lunchtime to extract the nuances from the subject, and discuss practical issues that arise.

Understanding Commercial Property Management - 2 Virtual Sessions
3 March 2021	18 March 2021	4.45 Hours CPD

Commercial leases are the foundation and essence of property management. Anyone who works in this area needs to be familiar with what they say, what they mean, and how to work them. In this course we explain the key commercial terms of a commercial lease, and focus on the problems the attending delegates have encountered. It is ideal for administrators who have not been trained in the nuances of property - administrators, PA's, secretaries, accounts personnel, facilities managers, newly qualified and APC candidates.

Telecom: Law and Practice in 2021 - 2 Virtual Sessions
8 March 2021	16 March 2021	3.15 Hours CPD

Applying Case Law to Practice. Telecom negotiations cannot be achieved without understanding the new Code and the case law. A panel of leading lawyers and practitioners will review important and topical cases and explore the nuances of what is best and effective practice in the light of these decisions.

The CPA's Annual Law Reform Lecture 2021
Virtual Seminar	25 March 2021	2.30 Hours CPD

The Compulsory Purchase Association invite you to attend this virtual event. With a run of recent cases in the last couple of years on CAADs in the Upper Tribunal, this year's lecture will look at what we can learn from those and examine the current process to consider if it is producing an efficient and effective outcome in determining alternative appropriate development.

CPO - Talking Heads - March
Virtual Seminar	23 March 2021	1 Hour CPD

Implications of Open Ended Safeguarding of Land for Future Projects. CPD and networking events are suspended. Both have significant role in the way we do business, and especially so in the CPO world. CPO Talking heads is about getting informed networking back for the land assembly world

CPT Events

Promoting and enhancing best practice and technical expertise

Upcoming Events

Forfeiture of Leases - The Ultimate Reset for 2021

Virtual Seminar	15 April 2021	2.15 Hours CPD
------------------------	----------------------	-----------------------

This course, by the author of 'A Practical Guide to Forfeiture of Leases' outlines the procedures and problems clearly and practically, and will be useful for anyone managing commercial property.

Commercial Dilapidations in the Real World

Virtual Seminar	22 April 2021	3 Hours CPD
------------------------	----------------------	--------------------

The Compulsory Purchase Association invite you to attend this virtual event. With a run of recent cases in the last couple of years on CAADs in the Upper Tribunal, this year's lecture will look at what we can learn from those and examine the current process to consider if it is producing an efficient and effective outcome in determining alternative appropriate development.

Providing accredited property CPD training courses and events since 1991