

Upcoming Events

Upskilling: The Compulsory Purchase Professional Development Programme

10 Virtual Seminars

Starting from 21 October 2024

Multiple Booking Options Available

2.5 Hours CPD Each

CPT Events have created a series of 10 training modules, comprising lectures and group discussions, which, when combined, form a route to competency in compulsory purchase law and practice for practitioners and professional advisors. The programme is comprehensive, designed to upskill knowledge in CPO law and practice, offering distance learning for those with limited knowledge of, and involvement in, compulsory purchase work. Completing the programme is an easy benefit for employers and a valuable win for employees.

CPO Talking Heads: January 2025

Virtual Discussion

30 January 2025

1 Hour CPD

Preparing for the Planning and Infrastructure Bill. This event runs as an informal discussion with a small panel of leading and informed practitioners extracting the nuances from this month's topic "Preparing for the Planning and Infrastructure Bill". It will discuss practical issues that arise, with participants in the meeting being encouraged to listen, join in, ask questions and share comments.

The CPA Annual Reform Lecture 2025

Hybrid Event

Burges Salmon LLP, London

13 February 2025

2.5 Hours CPD

Reforming Compulsory Purchase: The Law Commission's Consultation. The Compulsory Purchase Association invite you to attend the 2025 CPA Reform Lecture. In the year where the Law Commission conducts its consultation on CPO reform, it's hardly surprising that the 2025 Law Reform lecture will focus on its provisional proposals. It's an opportunity for CPA members and non-members who practice in compulsory purchase work to engage with the reform process. This event is organised by CPT on behalf of The CPA, non-members are invited to attend.

Rating: Law and Practice 2025

In Person Event

11 March 2025

3.5 Hours CPD

Applying Case Law to Practice. Best rating practice cannot be achieved without understanding case law. This in person event enables leading lawyers and rating advisors, along with senior VOA contributors to come together to review key cases in the context of current practice. The event will be chaired by Upper Tribunal Judge Elizabeth Cooke. Together they will review important and topical cases and explore the nuances of what is best and effective practice in the light of these decisions.

The 25th National Rating Day

Hybrid Event

Congress Centre, London

5 June 2025

5.5 Hours CPD

The National Rating Day has become a major fixture in the Rating calendar. It is the largest gathering of rating practitioners year on year; and is a must attend event if you work within the profession. This hybrid event looks at the here and now, policy and reform and best and effective practice. Speakers represent the private sector, the Valuation Office Agency and the Valuation Tribunal Service.